EDUCATIONAL THEATER TRIPS for Grades 2 thru 5 (Spring)

Brooklyn Philharmonic

Friday, March 16, 2012 at 10:15am & 12:00pm

Running Time: 50 minutes

Maestro Wayne DuMaine and the acclaimed Brooklyn Philharmonic return to Brooklyn Center with The Time is Always Right: A Century of Black Music in America, a new program featuring the works of Sam Cooke, Duke Ellington, Otis Redding, and William Grant Still, four black composers who helped change the face of American culture with their classical, jazz, gospel, and R&B compositions. Joining the orchestra will be tap dancers from Divine Rhythm Productions as well as the Brooklyn High School for the Arts Choir, making this concert a must-see for all music lovers!

Mufaro's Beautiful Daughters

Presented by Dallas Children's Theater on Tour

Based on the book by John Steptoe

Adapted for the stage by Karen Abbot

Monday, April 23, 2012 at 10:15am & 12:00pm

Running Time: 55 minutes

When a great African king desires a wife, only the most perfect maidens in the land are invited to meet him. Mufaro's pride and joy, his two daughters of very different dispositions, travel a half day's journey through a mystical jungle and across a deep river to be presented to the king. Along the way the two girls encounter a number of mysterious situations that test their courage, kindness and strength of spirit. Combining authentic African drumming, powerful and majestic choreography and thrilling original music, the splendor of Zimbabwe and energy of the African land will burst onto stage in this Caldecott Award winning tale!
